

The regional selection of music has honored the region of Kairouan in the National Festival of Music in School

The national festival of music in schools took place on 23, 24 and March 25, 2010 at Mednine with the participation of all regional directorates of education. The regional selection of Kairouan has honored the region receiving the first national award. On the other hand the student Rahma Guenin also received the first national prize of singing and individual student Kheribi Ismail received the first national prize of the violin individual game.