

Zaghouan
Celebration of the universal and national day of biodiversity
(may 23rd 2010)

Roman water temple, in Zaghouan hosts the final event for the celebration of the universal and national day of biodiversity. Many teachers, and pupils who are activists in the ecological field, take part, in this celebration.

This occasion will be crowned with honoring the winners, at the national, as well as the regional level.