

Baccalauréat main session exams start

The baccalauréat main session exams started Wednesday nationwide.

Education Minister Hatem Ben Salem visited this morning the Menzeh 1-based " Imam Muslim" secondary school where he enquired about the exam conditions.

139 147 high school pupils from public and private education establishments are distributed over 513 examination centres in several branches of learning such as arts, experimenting sciences, economics and management, maths

Written tests are scheduled for June 9, 10,11,14,15 and 16 for the main session and June 28, 29, 30 and July 1st , 2010 for the remedial session. Marking will be assured by 31 centres.Results will be announced June 26 for the main session and July 10 for the remedial session.

Exceptional arrangements have been made for certain examinees with special needs such as granting additional time, expanding the characters, providing assistance in writing by another student, presenting the subjects in Braille and conducting the tests inside prisons.

An information and follow-up cell has been set up at the Education Minister's Office.