

September 15, 2010: New School Year for public and private establishments

The Ministry of Education has announced that the new school year for pupils in public and private educational establishments will start Wednesday, September 15, 2010.

In a statement released Monday, teachers are requested to join schools on Tuesday September 14, 2010.