

Energizing co-operation in education and technical education

Education Minister Hatem Ben Salem received, on Wednesday, , Dec. 1, 2010 , Mrs. Mady Delvaux Stehres, Luxembourg's Education and Vocational Training Minister.

The meeting helped review bilateral co-operation and means to boost it, particularly in the education, technical education and vocational training sectors.

Mr. Ben Salem briefed his guest about the national orientations aimed to help the educational system achieve the highest quality levels. For her part, Luxembourg's minister voiced admiration for Tunisia's reformist and modernist approaches to education, which testifies to the will to keep abreast of the national and international changes.

She expressed her country's will to energise co-operation and step up the exchange of visits and expertise with Tunisia in order to develop the two countries' educational systems.
