

WORLD TEACHERS' DAY

Webquest deadline extended to November 14

World Teachers' Day, is held annually to commemorate the anniversary of the signing in 1966 of the UNESCO Recommendation Concerning the Status of Teachers.

The British Council is celebrating World Teachers' Day

To celebrate with us try the TeachingEnglish Webquest competition and win super prizes!

from 10 October to 14 November

We will be running a competition to encourage Tunisian teachers to focus on their continuing professional development [CPD]. The winners of the competition will be invited to join face-to-face training with UK experts in Tunisia.

This webquest competition is open only to Tunisian teachers.

Click here to access the competition rules

Click here to access the Webquest word document

Click here to access the Webquest PDF document

For more info about the UNESCO event on the World Teacher Day read this article

British Council World Teachers' Day 2012, Tunisia

TeachingEnglish Webquest Competition (for Tunisian teachers)

"Take a stand for teachers!"

COMPETITION GUIDE

Please read them carefully before you start the competition.

The Competition

- You will need to download and save the word version of the webquest competition entry form and answer all 5 questions of the TeachingEnglish webquest competition. You can find the competition entry form <http://www.britishcouncil.org/tunisia-world-teachers-day-2.htm>
- You will also need to Create an account on the TeachingEnglish website to enter this competition <http://www.teachingenglish.org.uk/>

Eligibility

- You must be a practising teacher.
- The competition runs from 10 October to 14 November 2012. Entries must be received before the closing date. Entries received after 14 November 2012 will not be eligible.
- The competition is open to anyone over 18 years of age.
- The competition is open to Tunisian nationals ONLY.
- You can submit your entries electronically to English4future@tn.britishcouncil.org
- You can enter the competition only once per person during the competition dates.
- You must comply with the official entry form guidelines.
- British Council staff or relatives of British Council staff may not enter this competition.

Judging

- Judging will take place in November 2012 after the deadline. Winners will be notified by the end of November 2012.
- The judging panel will comprise of British Council staff.
- The decision of the judging panel will be final and no discussion will be entered into.

Deadline

- Electronic entries should be submitted to English4future@tn.britishcouncil.org on or before 14 November 2012.
- Entries must contain the answers on the webquest competition entry form.
- Remember, no late entries will be accepted.

Prizes

Winners will be invited to participate in the Learning Technologies for the Classroom (LTC) course, delivered by a UK expert trainer, in Tunis, in December 2012.

Subsistence and hotel accommodation will be included as part of the prize.

Successful course participants will be awarded the British Council LTC certificate.

LTC is a multi-modular course for teachers and trainers of English which covers a number of areas including the following:

- Evaluating and selecting websites
- Integrating the web
- Using office applications in a computer room
- Searching for copyright-friendly materials
- Using the interactive Web in the classroom

NB: Prizes will be awarded to Tunisian nationals and educators ONLY.

Conditions governing prizes

- Prizes are not transferable and cannot be redeemed in cash or any other form.

IMPORTANT: post-competition promotion

- Please note: by entering the competition, you agree to give the British Council permission to publish the results of the competition winners.
- The British Council reserves the right to use competition winners' names in Press releases and publicity materials and may require winners to participate in any media coverage including interviews, contribute to British Council promotions both internally and externally.

Free British Council Resources

For support on the teaching and learning of English try these British Council websites:

Teachers <http://www.teachingenglish.org.uk>
Learners <http://learnenglish.britishcouncil.org>
Kids <http://learnenglishkids.britishcouncil.org>

Name (in BLOCK CAPITALS): Telephone number:

Your job, educational institution name and city:

Your email address:

To enter this British Council Tunisia competition, just complete your personal details above and then visit the TeachingEnglish website at www.teachingenglish.org.uk and find the answers to the 5 questions below.

There are 5 sections (tabs) in the website. There is 1 question about each section. Write your answer for each on this sheet, save it and return it to the British Council in Tunisia (see guidelines on how to do this).

1.  Teaching resources	Website section: Teaching resources In which Teaching resource B1 lesson plan do students produce a storyboard for an advertisement? .....
2.  Teacher development	Website section: Teacher development Go to the Continuing professional development. How many stages of the Continuing professional development are there? .....
3.  Teacher training	Website section: Teacher training What level of English is required to do the Self-access course – Learning Technologies in the Classroom? .....
4.  Articles	Website section: Articles What is the name of the article in the Latest content section which has a picture of students listening to their teacher? .....
5.  Community	Website section: Community Watch the video discussion question: 'What has helped you develop as a teacher?' and complete the advice given by the first teacher on the video: 'weeverything, planning and discussions about the '
Home 	Website section: Home Don't forget to Register and Create an account on the TeachingEnglish website to benefit from all the features of the site and to enter this competition - Good luck!